

What's New in the MPA Program

There has been a lot happening this Summer. The MPA program has officially moved back to the renovated Founders Hall, we have a new graduate

Alumni Highlights

NKU MPA alumna Tina Dyehouse (2009) won a People's Liberty grant to launch the first citywide digital ombudsman!

Learn more about Tina's project and other alumni highlights»

New Jobs and Promotions

- x Lynne Ausman Riehle (2008) is now the Quality Assurance Project Manager at Hamilton County Job and Family Services.
- x Drake Bryan (2012) has become the Senior Manager of Business Intelligence at KnowledgeWorks.
- x Abbie Cain (2012) was recently hired as the Department Manager, Plant and Soil Sciences, at the University of Kentucky.
- x Katie Dillon (2015) will soon start as Hospital Development Coordinator at LifeCenter Northwest, which is the organ procurement organization for ~~the~~ Montana, Washington, and northern Idaho.
- x Kyle Dorriere (2017) recently accepted a position with Kentucky Campus Compact as an AmeriCorps STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering and Math) VISTA.
- x Jim Flick (2010) began as the Director of Economic Develop

